Title: Low Angle Perspective

By: Greg Thomas

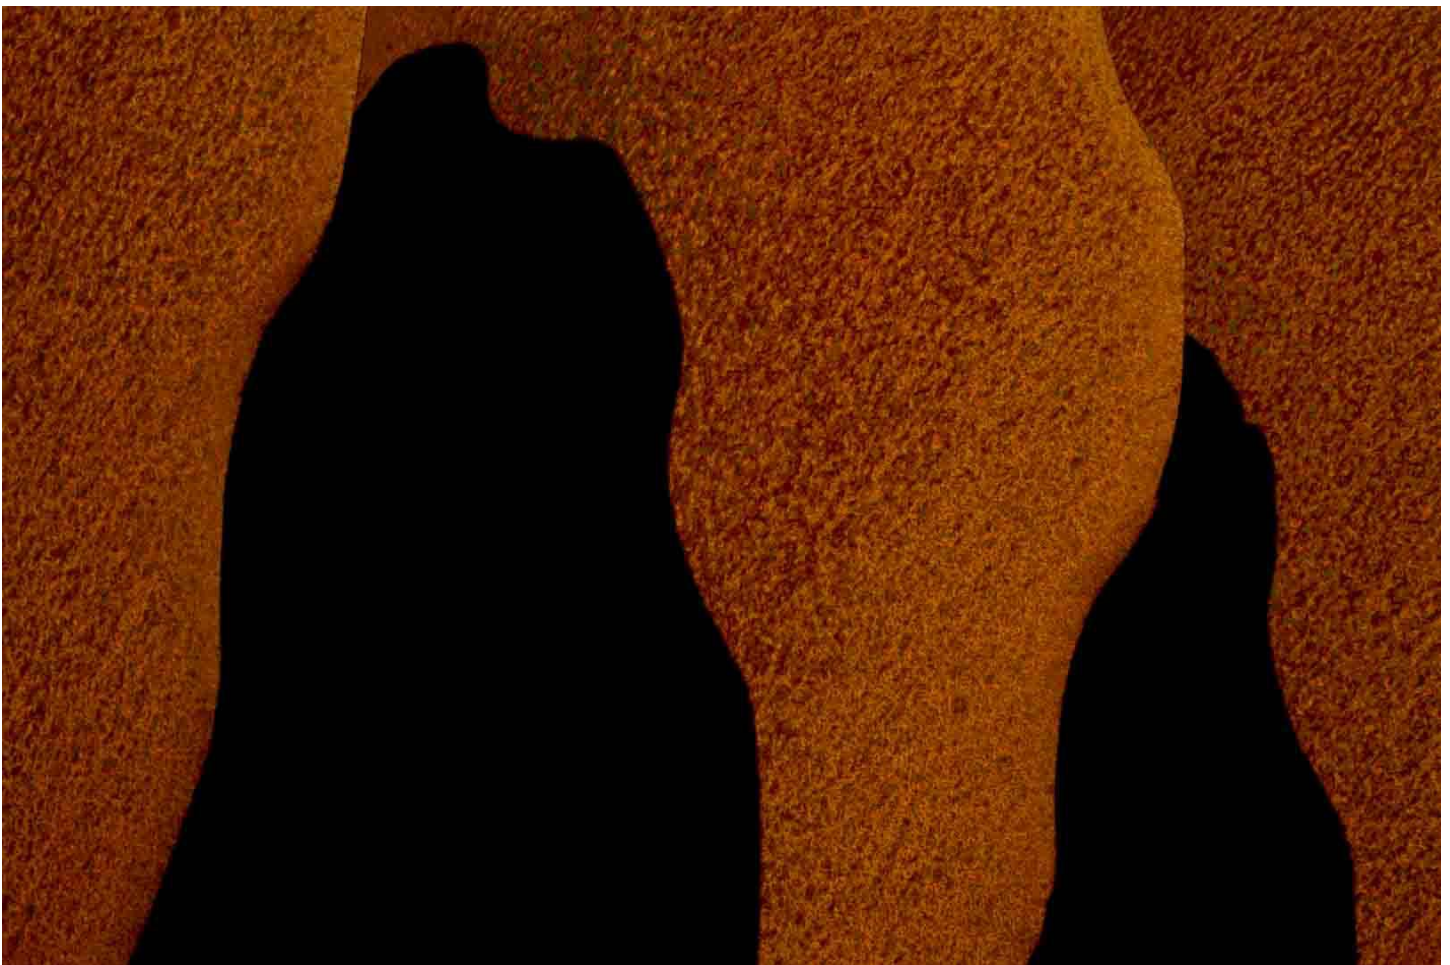

This shot was taken at the Cap Sante Marina in Anacortes. I was there to shot reflections for our MC “abstract”. I had taken quite a few photos of this particular boat because it was in really good shape for an old boat. While looking for better angles to photograph from I stepped on the rope in the foreground. I really liked the color of the rope and its patterns so I decided to get on my belly (thanks to an articulating screen I didn’t have to put my cheek on the concrete to compose) and include it and the cleat in the photo. I used an F22 f-stop to try and get as much depth of field as possible. I would have preferred to have included to the top of the masks but I had left my super wide angle lens in the car and didn’t want to walk all the way back to get it, but I am still pleased with how it turned out. Olympus EM1 mk2, 12x40 F2.8 @ 12mm(24mm eq), F22, 1/10sec.
