Title: China Ships

By: Doug Goodman

The photo was taken in Xiapu, Fujian province China. It's an area on China's east coast, just across from the north end of Taiwan. These two ships were beached for repairs. As is obvious, this is an HDR shot taken at beach level.

Image was taken with a Sony ILCE 6000, f3.5, 100 ISO, 1/250 second, at 18mm.

Pilchuck Camera Club 'Rusty Relics' Outing

April 15, 2018

Here we all are near the end of our adventure photographing 'rusty relics' near Welcome, WA. Pictured from left to right: Jim Rahm, Jerry Sorensen (outing organizer), Renata Kleinert, Lee Dygert, Steve Lightle, Sonia Rahm, Sherrie Tallman, and Donna Branscome. Missing from the photo are Greg Thomas as he was taking the image and David Green.

The forecast for the day was a bit chancy but Donna assured us that the weather would cooperate and she was right.

We headed north around 8:00 AM from the Stanwood Park & Ride, stopping for a short break at the Acme Diner (someone needed pie and coffee to go) and then on to the photography location where we met up with Lee, Greg and Sherrie.

Subject for the day: Old rusty trucks, cars, farm equipment, newspapers, logging equipment, tools and various old artifacts stored in the garages, sheds and buildings around the property. No shortage of subjects if you like 'rusty relics'.

The adventure ended with lunch at the Acme Diner.
