April Meeting Presenter

JD was born and raised in Seattle. He has always been creative, taking classes in photography, calligraphy, music and more. He graduated in 1995 from Edmonds Community College in Graphic Design which led him to the prestigious School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC), where he graduated in Visual Communication (specializing in graphic design) in 1998.

Since then, he has worked with top companies in different industries, but in 2007, he was honored to be hired as the Packaging Production Manager for one of the leading wineries in the entire United States (Ste. Michelle Wine Estates). He was responsible for 40 brands, working on wine labels, corks, capsules, and shippers. After over 11 years, he was ready to spread his wings and fulfill a creative calling.

In 2018 he started his own creative brand marketing company: J. Donovan Smith Creative, to share his expertise and passion with businesses providing them more visibility and brand recognition.

Today, JD takes advantage of the tools and techniques he has learned throughout his life in videography, graphic design, and photography. He provides each client with a personalized plan to present their brand and the message they want to communicate.

He loves what he does, loves the clients he works with, and loves to learn, grow, and be a resource for his clients.

He is a member and ambassador of the Mukilteo Chamber of Commerce, member of North Lake Washington Business Connection, the creator & past President of the Pacific Northwest Vulcan Riders, and a member of the Pilchuck Camera Club.

His photographs have been published in books, magazines, newspapers and on the cover of directories, and have been sold through Adobe Stock and his local community. His videos are gaining his clients visibility and are respected within the business community.

When he is not producing work for his clients, he loves to spend time with his wife, play with his two furry kiddos, hike, motorcycle ride, experience new restaurants and bars, travel and sit by the fire visualizing his next endeavor.
